

A Defenseless Creature

By Kallee Wishart

A Defenceless Creature is a short story written by Anton Chekov in 1887. It is a fictional short story of a bank worker called Kistunov who is suffering with gout and is feeling very unwell but comes to work despite his sickness. He is met with a woman who has arrived to receive a sum of money for her husband but will not leave without the money, giving Kistunov a hard time whilst he's ill. This eventually leaves Kistunov with no choice but to pay Madame Shtchukin from his own pocket so she will leave, just to find out that she will be coming back again the next day. A Defenceless creature conforms to the values and attitudes of the Victorian times using language techniques such as dialogue, stylistic elements such as sentence structure and character development.

Anton Chekhov uses language techniques such as dialogue to express his theme of people using their different strengths to get what they want. Through the short story we watch madame S's mood change through her language and dialogue after setting the scene with respectful and kind words such as consistently calling Mr K, "your excellency" and "dear sir", making her appear perfectly reasonable but in reality, is extremely patronising and cunning. This use of dialogue is consistently used with Mr K as well, especially whilst trying to explain to Madam S that the bank cannot provide her the money she needs. He becomes quickly irritable and frustrated; he starts to lose his patience and becomes aggressive exclaiming that the woman's requests are "queer and positively absurd!". This strong language illustrates the characters struggle to empathise with madam S whilst keeping his professional responsibility to satisfy his position.

Anton uses stylistic devices such as sentence structure to display the theme of strengths in a character and how it is used to benefit themselves. When further into the short story and faced with Madame S's true nature coming through her sentences change from polite medium length sentence structure to shorter sharper and more aggressive short sentence structure. For example Madame S pleaded with, "Only, your excellency, do me the kindness, make me pray for you for the rest of your life, be a father, protect me!" is very long and she is almost begging. Compare this to when she finally receives what she wants and is asked the amount of money she is owed, she replies, "Twenty-four roubles and thirty-six kopecks." This is very confident and authoritative, changing her entire demeanour, showing that she is not unreasonable but devious.

Throughout the entire story the author used character development to demonstrate how a character can use their strengths to get what they want. Madame Shtchukin is a very emotionally manipulative person, which she uses to achieve her end goal getting money. This is clearly demonstrated in paragraph 35 when Madame Shtchukin becomes very offended and claims, "I'm a weak, defenceless woman", implying that she has no power or strength in this situation. But then in the very next line she starts threatening Mr Kistunov's assistant Alexey Nikolaitch stating, "You screw!... I will go to Dmitri Karlitich, the lawyer, and there will be nothing left of you!" Clearly displaying that she is not powerless and can control these men very easily with threats to a massive part in their lives, their jobs.
