

CRUCIAL CONVERSATIONS

The Definitive Cheat Sheet

LEARNING	Example of How to Apply
Be Timely	Don't wait for the next meeting - setup time to have the conversation as soon as possible.
Prepare	Prepare before the conversation. Have your key talking points written down to deliver the message effectively.
Respect privacy	Schedule a quiet room for a private talk rather than a public place.
Demonstrate Care	While being firm, demonstrate care: "I am committed to supporting you through this situation..."
Remain Factual and Be Specific	Instead of "You never complete your work on time!", say "On project XYZ, we had agreed for you to deliver XYZ by XX/YY but you delivered it 7 days late..."
Master your Emotions	Take deep breaths and pause before responding to heated comments.
Be Clear on the Impact	Say: "...this delay in delivery caused customer XYZ to churn, impacting our plan by XYZ."
Listen Actively	Respond with "What I'm hearing is..." to ensure clarity and show engagement.
