Burial and Social Change in First Millennium BC Italy Elisa Perego, Rafael Scopacasa, 2016-11-30 In the first millennium BC communities in Italy underwent crucial transformations which scholars have often subsumed under the heading of state formation namely increased social stratification the centralization of political power and in some cases

urbanization Most research has tended to approach the phenomenon of state formation and social change in relation to specific territorial dynamics of growth and expansion changing modes of exploitation of food and other resources over time and the adoption of selected socio ritual practices by the ruling elites in order to construct and negotiate authority In contrast comparatively little attention has been paid to the question of how these key developments resonated across the broader social transect and how social groups other than ruling elites both promoted these changes and experienced their effects The chief aim of this collection of 14 papers is to harness innovative approaches to the exceptionally rich mortuary evidence of first millennium BC Italy in order to investigate the roles and identities of social actors who either struggled for power and social recognition or were manipulated and exploited by superior authorities in a phase of tumultuous sociopolitical change throughout the entire Mediterranean basin Contributors provide a diverse range of approaches in order to examine how power operated in society how it was exercised and resisted and how this can be studied through mortuary evidence Section 1 addresses the construction of identity by focusing mainly on the manipulation of age ethnic and gender categories in society in regions and sites that reached notable power and splendor in first millennium BC Italy These include Etruria Latium Campania and the rich settlement of Verucchio in Emilia Romagna Each paper in Section 2 offers a counterpoint to a contribution in Section 1 with an overall emphasis on scholarly multivocality and the multiplicity of the theoretical approaches that can be used to read the archaeological evidence

Vergil's Italy Alexander Gordon McKay, 1971 Italy was Vergil's ultimate and abiding love Unjustly deprived of his boyhood home near Mantua in the aftermath of civil war Vergil often reflected wistfully sometimes bitterly on his exile from the Arcadia of his youth Throughout his writings he eulogized his land from the Alps to the southern shores of Sicily Its peoples Greek Etruscan Celtic and Italic are his major concern and his main inspiration For behind the imposing facade of late Republican and Augustan Rome shimmers the reality of a war torn and anarchic Italy crying out desperately for order and renewed productivity The vision of the Golden Age of Paradise lost and regained permeates his writings Foreword

Renaissance in Italy: Italian literature John Addington Symonds, 1906 A Handbook for Travellers in Southern Italy John Murray (Firm), 1873 Adult Catalog: Title Los Angeles County Public Library, 1970 The Encyclopaedia Britannica Thomas Spencer Baynes, 1880 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1877
