Gifts From The Enemy The Humankind Project:

Gifts from the Enemy Trudy Ludwig, 2014     Religion and Transhumanism Calvin Mercer, Tracy J. Trothen, 2014-11-17
Should technology be used to improve human faculties such as cognition and longevity This thought provoking dialogue between transhumanism and religion examines enhancement technologies that could radically alter the human species Transhumanism or human enhancement is an intellectual and cultural movement that advocates the use of emerging technologies to change human traits Although they may sound like science fiction the possibilities suggested by transhumanism are very real and the questions they raise have no easy answers If these enhancements especially major ones like the indefinite extension of healthy human life become widely available they would arguably have a more radical impact on humankind than any other development in history This book comprises essays that explore transhumanism and the issues that surround it addressing numerous fascinating questions posed by scholars of religion from various traditions How will immortality or extreme longevity change our religious beliefs and practices How might pharmaceuticals enhance spiritual experiences Will post human technologies be available to all persons or will a superior post human race arise to dominate the human species The discussions are as intriguing as the future they suggest     Losing Interest Scott W. Schwartz, 2026-04-21 Nothing about endless capitalist growth is normal Across thousands of years of human history most cultures have placed explicit social and moral restrictions on economic growth with charging interest scorned as benefiting from another s hardship and profit making as divisive So how did interest rates monetary gains and return on investment come to rule our modern world Though most economic histories tell this story as one of overcoming superstition in favor of social progress Losing Interest explains how the concept of interest had to be continuously rehabilitated over six centuries of European colonial expansion transforming profit from a mortal sin into a business model From early Medici innovations in banking to the development of insurance schemes in the trans Atlantic slave trade our current economic system was built on legal and financial tools that abstract capital from the ongoing reality of deception theft and mass murder at its core With wit and lyricism anthropologist Scott W Schwartz makes a clear commonsense appeal for our shared wellbeing against capitalism s nonsensical demand for widespread suffering to produce the mounting wealth of the few In the spirit of David Graeber Thomas Piketty and Kohei Saito Losing Interest serves as a prequel to contemporary degrowth literature illuminating the history and mechanics of how interest has risen to take from the poor and give to the rich     The Gift of Black Folk William Edward Burghardt Du Bois, 1924     Reflections on the Religious, the Ethical, and the Political Calvin O. Schrag, 2013-01-01 Reflections on the Religious the Ethical and the Political presents fourteen essays devoted to the interconnected topics of religion ethics and politics along with an introductory interview with the author regarding his philosophical development over the years This volume serves two interconnected purposes as an introduction or reintroduction to Calvin O Schrag s intellectual contributions to a critical consideration of these three topics and as a critical companion and supplement to Schrag's published work on these topics. The topics of religion, ethics, and politics have served as pivot points throughout Schrag's career in the academy, which spans half a century. House documents, 1876

Philosophy of Religion for a New Century Jeremiah Hackett, Jerald Wallulis, 2004-04-30. Philosophy of Religion for a New Century represents the work of nineteen scholars presented at a conference in honor of Eugene T. Long at the University of South Carolina, April 5-6, 2002. This volume is a good example of philosophy in dialogue; there is both respect and genuine disagreement. First, an account of our present situation in the Philosophy of Religion is given, leading to a discussion of the very idea of a Christian Philosophy and the coherence of the traditional concept of God. The implications of science and a concern for the environment in our concepts of God are carefully examined. A discussion follows on the possibility of speech about God and silence about God. Since much of modern European philosophy is concerned with the Death of God theme, the positions of Nietzsche and some of his twentieth-century interpreters are presented. There are presentations on Feminist Approaches to Philosophy of Religion and Comparative Religion is examined in relation to cultures and the demands of rationality. The volume concludes with a critical dialogue on the relation of Religious Discourse to the Public Sphere. Developing global awareness has led to significant change in the Philosophy of Religion. One-dimensional approaches have given way to honest dialogue. The traditional boundaries between the secular and the religious have shifted, and new approaches to traditional problems are required. This volume presents examples of these new approaches. Department of State Publication USA Department of State, 1875

Space, Oil and Capital Mazen Labban, 2008-03-26. This book examines the contemporary competition among US, Japanese, Russian, Indian, Chinese, and Western European transnational oil companies for investment in the oil industry of Russia and Iran as a case study. Pamphlet Series Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Division of International Law, 1921
