South Africa's Alternative Press Les Switzer, 1997-02-13 Collection of essays on the South African alternative press from the 1880s to the 1960s

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis

The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

The Will to Die Can Themba, 2024-02-01 In this collection of previously banned short stories Can Themba shines a light on the racism and systemic violence suffered by Black South Africans during apartheid in the late 1950s Written during Can Themba's career as an investigative journalist for South Africa's revolutionary magazine Drum these seventeen short stories capture the atrocities of apartheid as he witnessed and experienced them first hand In Themba's most famous short story The Suit a couple living in poverty struggle to find freedom from oppression and from each other Set in Sophiatown the tales prelude the South African government's decision to bulldoze the homes of Black residents and make way for a white only suburb an event that personally devastated Can Themba and shaped the rest of his writing career This is the essential collection of his most impactful stories written in defiance of the injustice he witnessed Selected by Donald Stuart and Roy Holland

The essays in this book reveal the complex and arguably inevitable politicization of South African literary culture

Southern African Material in Anthologies of English Literature in the Strange Library of Africana Strange Library of Africana,1988 Looking for a Rain God and Other Short Stories from Africa Ian Gordon,1995 A collection of short stories from Africa covering a range of subjects from the conflict between traditional and new ways of life and values to the role of women in society The main introduction provides a background for discussion as well as ideas for students to use in their own writing Let's Talk Writing Es'kia Mphahlele,1985 South Africa Nomavenda Mathiane,1989-05-24 This volume is a fascinating collection of pieces by South African journalist Nomavenda Mathiane Unlike much that is written about South Africa these pieces are very personal observations and reflections based on day to day experiences They range from descriptions of the horrors of necklacing the practice of placing a car tire about the body of an alleged informer or collaborator and setting it afire with gasoline to the joy of a new birth to the heartbreak of a mother whose son murders a neighborhood peer Ms Mathiane s analysis of politics and education is must reading for anyone who cares about the effects of apartheid Her frequently pungent and controversial views have won for her an ever widening audience in South Africa and other African countries She deserves to be better known in other countries as well
