Scents and Sensibility Catherine Maxwell, 2017-10-20 This lively accessible book is the first to explore Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature's relation with the senses Concentrating on aesthetic and decadent authors Scents and Sensibility introduces a rich selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent's carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility A key theme is the emergence of the olfactif the cultivated individual with a refined sense of smell influentially represented by the poet and critic Algernon Charles Swinburne who is emulated by a host of canonical and less well known aesthetic and decadent successors such as Walter Pater Edmund Gosse John Addington Symonds Lafcadio Hearn Michael Field Oscar Wilde Arthur Symons Mark Andr Raffalovich Theodore Wratishlaw and A Mary F Robinson This book explores how scent and perfume pervade the work of these authors in many different ways signifying such diverse things as style atmosphere influence sexuality sensibility spirituality refinement individuality the expression of love and poetic creativity and the aura of personality dandyism modernity and memory A coda explores the contrasting twentieth century responses of Virginia Woolf and Compton Mackenzie to the scent of Victorian literature

The Forms of Michael Field LeeAnne M. Richardson, 2021-11-08 Michael Field the poetic identity created by Katharine Bradley 1846 1914 and her niece Edith Cooper 1862 1913 ceaselessly experimented with forms of identity and forms of literary expression The Forms of Michael Field argues that their modes of self creation are analogous to their poetic creations and that exploring them in tandem is the best way to understand Michael Field's cultural and literary importance Michael Field deploys a different form in each volume of their lyric poetry translations of Sappho ekphrasis songs sonnets and devotional verse They also appropriate and revise the dramatic genres of verse tragedy and the masque Each of these experiments in form enable Michael Field to differently address the cultural questions that beset late Victorian women writers Drawing on the insights of new lyric studies and new formalism this book analyzes Michael Field's continual quest for the aesthetic forms that best express their evolving ideas about identity and sexuality gender and sacrifice lyric voice and authority
