exports of information technology related services This resource will be valuable for policy makers experts and academics who are engaged in efforts to reform service and investment policies in their own country Valuing Services in Trade Sebastian Saez,Daria Taglioni,2015-01-15 Valuing Services in Trade A Toolkit for Competitiveness Diagnostics provides a framework guidance and practical tools for conducting an analysis and diagnostics of the trade competitiveness of a country s services sector The proposed methods subsequently identify the main constraints to improved competitiveness and the appropriate policy responses Valuing Services in Trade has been successfully tested on country specific assessments and is designed to address a wider audience including policy makers in developing countries and development practitioners in international organizations policy making institutions and academia Its modules are valuable for different audiences full country diagnostics can be undertaken or various parts of the Toolkit can be used to address specific areas of interest to policy makers and experts A successful diagnostic based on the Toolkit depends on qualitative assessments and information gathered from a wide variety of stakeholders in the country including government officials and the private sector as well as on the quantitative analysis A diagnostic analysis should therefore be conducted in four key steps including preparation of a preliminary trade outcome assessment based on available hard data initial desk research and preparation for fieldwork in country field research and analysis and preparation of the final report and policy recommendations OECD Trade Policy Studies Trading Up Economic Perspectives on Development Issues in the Multilateral Trading System OECD,2006-05-23 This volume considers trade liberalisation and development from an economic perspective aiming to examine these emotive issues using empirical approaches and dispassionate analysis Globalization and Social Transformation in the Asia-Pacific C. Tazreiter,S. Tham,2013-10-23 The contributors engage with a range of critical and contemporary issues of two key societies in the Asia Pacific region Australia and Malaysia These include foreign policy and national security multiculturalism and citizenship the middle class global governance migrants and international students Industries without Smokestacks Richard Newfarmer,John Page,Finn Tarp,2018-10-25 By 2030 more than three quarters of the world s absolute poor are projected to live in Africa Accelerating economic growth is key to rising incomes on the continent and central to this challenge is establishing activities that are capable of employing large numbers of unskilled workers that can raise productivity through innovation and that can power growth through exports Such structural transformation is a key driver of growth and between 1950 1996 about half of the economic catch up by developing countries led by East Asia was due to rising productivity in manufacturing combined with growing agricultural output Africa however has lagged behind In 2014 the average share of manufacturing in GDP in sub Saharan Africa hovered around 10 per cent unchanged from the 1970s leading some observers to be pessimistic about Africa s potential to catch the wave of sustained rapid growth and rising incomes Industries Without Smokestacks Industrialization in Africa Reconsidered challenges this view It argues that other activities sharing the characteristics of manufacturing including tourism ICT and other services as well as food processing and horticulture are beginning to play a role analogous to that played by manufacturing in East Asia This reflects not only changes in the global organization of industries since the early era of rapid East Asian growth but also advantages unique to Africa These industries without smokestacks offer new opportunities for Africa to grow in coming decades

Elgar Encyclopedia of Services Faiz Gallouj, Camal Gallouj, Marie-Christine Monnoyer, Luis Rubalcaba, 2023-01-17 The Encyclopedia of Services is a ground breaking resource that offers a unique overview of what constitutes the main source of wealth and employment in our contemporary economies namely services This title contains one or more Open Access chapters

Globalisation and Services-driven Economic Growth Niels Beerepoot, Bart Lambregts, Jana Kleibert, 2016-07-28 Following drastic shifts in the spatial organization of goods production increasingly fierce competition now forces firms also to look critically at how to organize the production of services While digitization and advances in information and communication technologies have enabled firms to unbundle service production processes the increased global availability of skilled labour allows for the relocation of ever more of these processes around the world As a result a new geography of services production takes shape a geography that is defined by new interregional and international divisions of labour and held together by increasingly complex global services production networks This book examines how the reorganisation of services production alters relations between and generates different sets of challenges and opportunities for economic development in the Global North and the Global South Drawing from 11 case studies probing various aspects of services production in different parts of the world the book brings out the remarkable heterogeneity and transformative capacities of services It successively shows how global trade in services creates new interdependencies between services producing and services consuming regions reveals how services help to mitigate the impact of and contribute to recovery from economic crises in the Global North and demonstrates how services offshoring fosters economic development and service sector driven modernisation processes in the Global South The book s openness to the heterogeneous and dynamic nature of services production enlarges our understanding of which particular services in which spatiotemporal context have the capacity to generate good jobs contribute to productivity and drive economic growth The book stands out from other books in the field in that it combines perspectives on services driven transformations from both the Global North and the Global South and looks into the role of various services segments Based on pioneering empirical research and original data it offers a timely contribution to this growing debate The book provides valuable insights for students scholars and professionals interested in services services offshoring services driven growth and socioeconomic transformations in the Global North and South
