Expository Discourse Beverly Lewin:

Expository Discourse Beverly Lewin, Jonathan Fine, Lynne Young, 2005-11-17 The description of the social science research genre is important both for those teaching English to speakers and readers of other languages and for researchers in discourse structure For teachers the detailed analysis of texts and the method for determining realization rules will help in guiding students who must understand and produce research articles For researchers the qualitative and quantitative analyses show how the different levels of abstraction from the genre itself to its moves acts and wordings are related to each other Lastly this analysis can serve as a model for future descriptions of other academic and professional genres BOOK

JACKET Dialogue, Science and Academic Writing Zohar Livnat, 2012-01-11 This book investigates the dialogic nature of research articles from the perspective of discourse analysis based on theories of dialogicity It proposes a theoretical and applied framework for the understanding and exploration of scientific dialogicity Focusing on some dialogic components among them citations concession inclusive we and interrogatives a combined model of scientific dialogicity is proposed that reflects the place and role of various linguistic structures against the background of various theoretical approaches to dialogicity Taking this combined model as a basis the analysis demonstrates how scientific dialogicity is realized in an actual scientific dispute and how a scientific project is constructed step by step by means of a dialogue with its readers and discourse community A number of different patterns of scientific dialogicity are offered characterized by the different levels of the polemic held with the research world and other specific researchers from the classic moderate and polite dialogicity to a direct and personal confrontation between scientists A Systemic Functional Grammar of French David

Banks, 2017-02-10 A Systemic Functional Grammar of French provides an accessible introduction to systemic functional linguistics through French This concise introduction to the systemic functional grammar SFG framework provides illustrations throughout that highlight how the framework can be used to analyse authentic language texts This will be of interest to students in alternative linguistic frameworks who wish to acquire a basic understanding of SFG as well as academics in related areas such as literary and cultural studies interested in seeing how SFG can be applied to their fields

Linguistic and Translation Studies in Scientific Communication M. Lluïsa Gea Valor, 2010 This volume offers a collection of papers which seek to provide further insights into the way scientific and technical knowledge is communicated i e written transmitted and translated nowadays not only in the academic sphere but also in society as a whole Language in science has traditionally been valued for prioritising objective propositional content however interpersonal and pragmatic dimensions as well as translation perspectives are worth exploring in order to better understand the mechanisms of specialised communication Accordingly the contributions in this volume cover topics of special interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of linguistics and translation such as the popularisation and transmission of scientific knowledge via ICTs terminology and corpus based studies in scientific discourse genres and discourse in scientific and technical communication the history and evolution of scientific language and translation of scientific texts Register, Genre, and Style Douglas Biber, Susan Conrad, 2019-05-16 A brand new edition of this flagship work that provides detailed descriptions of important text varieties in English along with methodological techniques to carry out analyses Biomedical Engineering Sylwia Olsztyńska, Małgorzata Komorowska, 2011-01-08 This book is addressed to scientists and professionals working in the wide area of biomedical engineering from biochemistry and pharmacy to medicine and clinical engineering The panorama of problems presented in this volume may be of special interest for young scientists looking for innovative technologies and new trends in biomedical engineering Constructing Interpersonality Rosa Lorés Sanz, Pilar Mur-Dueñas, Enrique Lafuente-Millán, 2010 The view that academic discourse is by definition impersonal has long been superseded It seems unquestionable now that the interpersonal component of texts that is the ways in which the writers project themselves and their audience in the discourse is an essential factor determining the success of scholarly communication and has become a fundamental issue in the field of English for Academic Purposes EAP Interpersonality is the key issue around which the articles in this edited book focus on The eighteen contributions included in this volume provide a wide exploratory view of the many academic genres in which interpersonal is manifested and the various analytical approaches from which the textual manifestation of that interpersonal can be studied The varied origin of the contributors is also representative of the global interest that the issue of interpersonal arouses in the field of academic discourse analysis at an international level The present volume constitutes a highly valuable tool for applied linguists and discourse analysts with an interest in EAP as well as for students instructors and language teachers interested in academic discourse The book may also be of interest to other agents intervening in the research publication process such as translators proofreaders reviewers and editors
