Exploring Affect Exploring Affect:

Exploring Affect Silvan S. Tomkins, 1995-01-27 Silvan Tomkins was one of the most influential theorists on emotion and emotional expression. Over a period of 40 some years until his death in 1991 he developed a set of original important ideas about the nature of affect and its relationship to cognition and personality. Tomkins dealt with fundamental questions in a fresh and provocative way establishing affect as a separate biological system and providing compelling data on discrete affect expressions. Several years before his death Professor Tomkins agreed to bring his papers unpublished and published together into Exploring Affect for Cambridge Studies in Emotion and Social Interaction. He worked with Paul Ekman and Klaus Scherer to develop a structure for the book that would synthesize his theory of emotion. Unfortunately he died before he was able to complete the process. Virginia Demos who knew Professor Tomkins well took on the enormous task of compiling the papers and writing connective material for the book. This volume of Tomkins selected writings on affect brings together his works of four decades and makes them available at a more receptive time in the field. It is a treasure trove of provocative insightful and relevant ideas.

Exploring Affect Silvan Solomon Tomkins, E. Virginia Demos, 1995-01-01 A comprehensive introduction to the work of Silvan Tomkins a leading theorist of human emotion and motivation. Affect Theory, Shame, and Christian Formation Stephanie N. Arel, 2016-11-08 This book addresses the eclipse of shame in Christian theology by showing how shame emerges in Christian texts and practice in ways that can be neither assimilated into a discourses of guilt nor dissociated from embodiment. Stephanie N Arel argues that the traditional focus on guilt obscures shame by perpetuating the image of the lonely sinner in guilt. Drawing on recent studies in affect and attachment theories to frame the theological analysis the text examines the theological anthropological writings of Augustine and Reinhold Niebuhr the interpretation of empathy by Edith Stein and moments of touch in Christian praxis. Bringing the affective dynamics of shame to the forefront enables theologians and religious leaders to identify where shame emerges in language and human behavior. The text expands work in trauma theory providing a multi layered theological lens for engaging shame and accompanying suffering. Affect Theory and Translation on YouTube Seryun Lee, 2025-05-31 The main aim of this book is to contribute to theorising audiovisual translation in today's digital media culture as a means of self expression and community building. An increasing number of people are participating in producing consuming and disseminating media content among like minded others in pursuit of their individual interests and agendas as part of the so called phenomenon of self mediation. In today's networked society such self mediation may contribute to boosting the digital diaspora facilitating the exploration and negotiation of shared interests among individuals from different lingua cultural backgrounds and enabling the formation of communities of affinity. This book is the first monograph that explores translation on YouTube as part of the self mediation phenomenon. By drawing on key concepts in affect theory this book examines how audiovisual translation contributes to shaping today's participatory digital media culture.

Religious Affects Donovan O. Schaefer,2015-11-13 In Religious Affects Donovan O. Schaefer challenges the notion that religion is inextricably linked to language and belief proposing instead that it is primarily driven by affects Drawing on affect theory evolutionary biology and poststructuralist theory Schaefer builds on the recent materialist shift in religious studies to relocate religious practices in the affective realm an insight that helps us better understand how religion is lived in conjunction with systems of power To demonstrate religion's animality and how it works affectively Schaefer turns to a series of case studies including the documentary Jesus Camp and contemporary American Islamophobia Placing affect theory in conversation with post Darwinian evolutionary theory Schaefer explores the extent to which nonhuman animals have the capacity to practice religion linking human forms of religion and power through a new analysis of the chimpanzee waterfall dance as observed by Jane Goodall In this compelling case for the use of affect theory in religious studies Schaefer provides a new model for mapping relations between religion politics species globalization secularism race and ethics

Transferential Poetics, from Poe to Warhol Adam Frank,2014-12-15 Transferential Poetics presents a method for bringing theories of affect to the study of poetics Informed by the thinking of Silvan Tomkins Melanie Klein and Wilfred Bion it offers new interpretations of the poetics of four major American artists Edgar Allan Poe

Henry James Gertrude Stein and Andy Warhol The author emphasizes the close reflexive attention each of these artists pays to the transfer of feeling between text and reader or composition and audience their transferential poetics The book s historical route from Poe to Warhol culminates in television a technology and cultural form that makes affect distinctly available to perception The peculiar theatricality of these four artists Frank argues can best be understood as a reciprocal framing relation between the bodily means of communicating affect by face and voice and technologies of graphic reproduction
