Theou Sophia Holden Edward Sampson,1918 Shapes of Time Michael McGillen,2023-12-15 Shapes of Time explores how concepts of time and history were spatialized in early twentieth century German thought Michael McGillen locates efforts in German modernism to conceive of alternative shapes of time beyond those of historicism and nineteenth century philosophies of history at the boundary between secular and theological discourses By analyzing canonical works of German modernism those of Karl Barth Franz Rosenzweig Siegfried Kracauer and Robert Musil he identifies the ways in which spatial imagery and metaphors were employed to both separate the end of history from a narrative framework and to map the liminal relation between history and eschatology Drawing on theories and practices as disparate as constructivism non Euclidean geometry photography and urban architecture Shapes of Time presents original connections between modernism theology and mathematics as played out within the canon of twentieth century German letters Concepts of temporal and spatial form McGillen contends contribute to the understanding not only of modernist literature but also of larger theoretical concerns within modern cultural and intellectual history

Dogmatic Theology William Greenough Thayer Shedd,1888 National Message and Banner ,1930 Faith as Participation Jeanette Hagen Pifer,2019-05-29 In recent years three particular debates have risen to the fore of Pauline Studies the question of the centre of Pauline theology how to interpret the mula and the relationship between divine and human agency In the present study Jeanette Hagen Pifer contends that several of the apparent conundrums in recent Pauline scholarship turn out to derive from an inadequate understanding of what Paul means by faith By first exploring the question of what Paul means by faith outside of the classic justification passages in Romans and Galatians she reveals faith as an active and productive mode of human existence Yet this existence is not a form of human self achievement On the contrary faith is precisely the denial of self effort and a dependence upon the prior gracious work of Christ In this way faith is self negating and self involving participation in the Christ event The Circle of Redemption Jenifer Tarver,2023-06-08 Get ready for a love story unlike any other Anthony and Jenifer s journey is full of unexpected twists and turns from accidentally starting a family together to navigating the world with no direction or guidance But through it all they refused to give up on each other finding strength and resilience in their love Along the way you ll find humor to lighten the mood as well as moments of inspiration that will leave you feeling uplifted But beware this is also a story of suspense as Anthony and Jenifer face challenges that threaten to tear them apart Will their love be enough to overcome the odds Come along on this wild ride of friendship betrayal self discovery and most of all love and find out for yourself
