Nagar,2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan Africanism The three primary regional economic communities RECs that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the East African Community EAC and the Southern African Development Community SADC These RECS include Africa s major economies Egypt South Africa and Kenya but are also home to Africa s most conflict prone and volatile states the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC Burundi South Sudan Somalia and Lesotho Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan Africanism Business Battles in the US Energy Sector Christian Downie,2019-01-17

This book is ground breaking in its study of business actors in climate and energy politics While various studies have demonstrated the influence of business actors across multiple policy domains this is the first to examine the behaviour of business actors in energy centric industries in the US that will be vital for achieving a clean energy transition namely the oil gas coal utility and renewable industries Drawing on almost 80 interviews with senior energy executives lobbyists and policymakers it asks two central questions i how and why are business actors shaping energy policy contests in the US And ii what are the implications for policymakers In answering these questions this book provides new insights about the preferences and strategies of business in the energy sector and significantly it identifies strategies for policymakers seeking to regulate energy in the face of political resistance from incumbent fossil fuel industries This book will be of particular value to students scholars and policymakers working in the fields of energy climate and environmental politics as well as individuals generally interested in the role that business exerts over policy processes

Retirement in Japan and South Korea Masa Higo, Thomas R. Klassen, 2015-04-10 This book analyses reforms to retirement policies in Japan and South Korea especially in the context of rapid population ageing A defining feature of the labour markets and workplaces in these two nations and the lives of workers and families is involuntary retirement at relatively young ages The book explains past developments and recent reforms of retirement policies both in the two countries as well as in a cross national comparative manner At the core of the book is an examination of the social economic and political conflicts around retirement such as between younger and older workers between employers and governments and between employers and workers The policy recommendations offered apply not only to Japan and South Korea but also to other nations such as China The volume is of value particularly for those interested in labour markets and workplaces population ageing and contemporary East Asia in addition to those studying retirement and pensions Policymakers business leaders worker organizations researchers and students will benefit from the insights about the past present and future of retirement
