Conversations Fethullah Gen Hizmet Movement:

Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Peter Barnes, Gregory Baum, 2015-12-16 This book entitled Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Dreaming for a Better World is intended to represent an open perspective on the influence of the Hizmet Movement including Fethullah Gülen in particular on the theme of dreaming for a better world based on a variety of Christian and Muslim world views This theme is approached from three specific perspectives education and an emphasis on interfaith and intercultural dialogue a comparison of various spiritualities and a consideration of the shared dreams of the two religions The essays in this volume are adapted from talks presented by eleven authors from Canada and the United States at the Gülen Symposium at Carleton University in October 2009 The panel discussion that followed the individual presentations enhanced the overall theme of dreaming for a better world The symposium as a whole represented the positive potential that there is for the organization of forums of sharing that focus on this theme and on the three sub themes

Islamic Conversation Smita Tewari Jassal, 2019-09-30 The book evaluates on going ethical conversations to learn how emotional communication is received teachings are internalized and a religious world view is brought to life Exploring how religious values saturate people's consciousness to induce subtle shifts in moral and ethical sensibilities this book is about people's practices that illuminate how Islam is lived Based on fieldwork conducted in Ankara between 2010 and 2016 the study enquires into people's ethical religious and moral motivations through the use of the ethnographic method and thick description Conversations and interviews with officials community leaders students entrepreneurs professionals and blue collar workers were subjected to close scrutiny to foreground societal change and churning To capture perspectives absent or deliberately overlooked in mainstream public discourse and scholarship fieldwork was conducted in locations ranging from homes offices and university dorms to the shrines of saints In listening closely to how people talk about their religious practices the book addresses the question of how Islamic subjectivities are being forged in Turkey The study unveils how people are pushed to re think old practices and attitudes in the process of reinterpreting Islam in light of contemporary concerns Filling a gap in the literature where micro level grounded analyses of culture and society are relatively rare this book is a key resource for readers interested in the anthropology of religion and gender ethnography Turkey and the Middle East

Advancing Multicultural Dialogues in Education Richard Race, 2017-10-27 This edited collection advances the call for continued multicultural dialogues within education Dialogue and education are the two most essential tools that can help tackle some of the biggest problems we are facing across the globe including fanaticism chauvinistic nationalism religious fundamentalism and racism The contributors to this book explore the necessity of sustained dialogue within the wider social and political sciences alongside in national and international politics where more multicultural voices need to be heard in order to make progress The book builds on existing evidence and literature to advocate in favour of this movement and highlights how important and significant multiculturalism and multicultural education remains It will be essential reading for students and academics working in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in social justice and multiculturalism Fethullah Gulen Jon Pahl,2019-04-22 In this first critical biography of Fethullah Gulen in English historian Jon Pahl takes us on a journey where we discover wisdom and controversy from 1940 s Turkey to the U S in the twenty first century Pahl tells the story of a pious Muslim boy from a tiny and remote Turkish village who on the one hand has inspired a global movement of millions of individuals dedicated to literacy social enterprise and interreligious dialogue but who on the other hand has been monitored by Turkish police seen as a threat by autocrats and recently declared number one enemy by the current Turkish dictator With lively prose and extensive research Pahl traces Fethullah Gulen s life and thought in its contexts states clearly his own positions and then lets readers draw their own conclusions from the evidence about this undeniably significant historical figure

Islam and Popular Culture Karin van Nieuwkerk,Mark LeVine,Martin Stokes,2016-04-12 Popular culture serves as a fresh and revealing window on contemporary developments in the Muslim world because it is a site where many important and controversial issues are explored and debated Aesthetic expression has become intertwined with politics and religion due to the uprisings of the Arab Spring while at the same time Islamist authorities are showing increasingly accommodating and populist attitudes toward popular culture Not simply a westernizing or secularizing force as some have asserted popular culture now plays a growing role in defining what it means to be Muslim With well structured chapters that explain key concepts clearly Islam and Popular Culture addresses new trends and developments that merge popular arts and Islam Its eighteen case studies by eminent scholars cover a wide range of topics such as lifestyle dress revolutionary street theater graffiti popular music poetry television drama visual culture and dance throughout the Muslim world from Indonesia Africa and the Middle East to Europe The first comprehensive overview of this important subject Islam and Popular Culture offers essential new ways of understanding the diverse religious discourses and pious ethics expressed in popular art productions the cultural politics of states and movements and the global flows of popular culture in the Muslim world Renewing Islam by Service Pim Valkenberg,2015-07 Renewing Islam by Service offers a theological account of the contemporary Turkish faith based service movement started by Fethullah G len and placed against the backdrop of changes in modern Turkish society The life and works of G len are analyzed against the background of developments in Turkish society and of spiritual Islamic tendencies in the transition from the Ottoman empire to the secular republic Pim Valkenberg includes stories of his personal experiences with supporters of this movement in a number of dierent countries and analyzes the spiritual practices and the faith based service of this movement that is also compared to some important Christian religious movements A Life in Tears Salih Yucel,2018-12-01 Fethullah G len is a leading figure in the current Turkish socio political context Regardless of the impression different circles have about him he is universally acknowledged as an accomplished scholar and independent thinker who has had a life in tears dreaming of a golden generation but also a life spent in persecution and ongoing trials This book goes beyond the current controversy around his name and tries to explore G len as a scholar around his certain personal traits and some of the key concepts he has been emphasizing over the years to mobilize his audience Based on a research that covers over seventy books 564 sermons over 500 talks by G len more than fifty interviews of his close associates and friends aired on TV networks and the author s personal observations this book is a useful reference for those who study scholarly traditions of Islam in general and Fethullah G len in particular Making Islam Work Thijl Sunier,2023-10-16 The development of Islamic landscapes in Europe is first and foremost related to Islamic authority Religious authority relies on persuasiveness and deals with issues of truth authenticity legitimacy trust and ethics with reference to religious matters This study argues that Islamic authority making among European Muslims is a social and relational practice that is much broader and versatile than theological proficiency and personal status It can also be conferred to objects activities and events The book explores various ways in which Islamic authority is being constituted among Muslims in Western Europe with a particular focus on the role of ordinary Muslims This book is available in its entirety in Open Access The Art of Coexistence Salih Yucel,Ismail Albayrak,2015-04-07 The global threat of war terrorism the increased gap between poor and rich famine malnutrition global warming and pollution and many other social and cultural problems pose a real challenge for present citizens of the globe Intellectuals and politicians take these challenges as their primary concerns Despite the existence of some pessimists there are a number of initiatives working for the common good and expending great effort to solve these problems The Hizmet G len Movement is one of the most influential initiatives that should be taken into consideration in this context Fethullah G len is a Turkish Muslim scholar whose ideas have inspired and influenced many Turkish intellectuals educators students businessmen politicians and journalists inside and outside Turkey to establish schools educational and intercultural centres and humanitarian aids organisation in more than one hundred fifty countries Y cel and Albayrak cover the Hizmet Movement under the leadership of Fethullah G len from various perspectives in order to shed lights on current discussions Time to Talk Ekrem Dumanli,2015-04-07 Time to Talk a detailed interview of Fethullah Gulen by Ekrem Dumanli is a defense manifesto of the Hizmet Movement which has been engaged in educational activities around the world and in Turkey for five decades The content of the talk once again confirms that the Movement which has never been involved in any illegal activity whatsoever since its inception expects nothing but the establishment of bridges of peace and brotherhood throughout the world Gulen s responses to the questions on the association of the Hizmet Movement with the so called parallel state the December 17 corruption investigation and many other critical inquiries eliminate the suspicions Strategic Defamation of Fethullah Gülen Dogan Koç,2012-07-06 Fethullah G len is a moderate Turkish Muslim scholar who is known mostly for his education and dialogue activities The Hizmet Movement inspired by G len has established hundreds of education and dialogue institutions throughout the world Several books and hundreds of articles and news reports have been written about G len himself and the movement In recent years a defamation campaign has been launched against G len and the Hizmet Movement Although these defamation articles may seem random this book will show that the articles are written strategically in a campaign manner In Strategic Defamation of Fethullah G len close to 500 defamation articles books and other forms of writings are analyzed according to their languages Ko concludes that these defamations are not random and that they appear according to their respective audiences Devoted to the Truth Fethullah Gulen,2024-02-09 For decades Fethullah G len spoke on religion together with science addressed challenging issues on faith and inspired a generation to promote education and dialogue around the world Those who listened to him felt empowered by this engaging and learned man of religion To the ruling establishment of Turkey his native country these activities were assumed to be crossing over the line and they made sure he suffered the consequences especially throughout the second decade of the twenty first century G len and the people he inspired were scapegoated for the failures and malfeasance of a corrupt regime which conducted a nationwide crackdown on affiliated schools foundations and media organizations while hundreds of thousands of teachers doctors journalists civil servants and supporters affiliated with them were purged and incarcerated especially in the aftermath of the staged coup attempt in July 2016 Devoted to the Truth is a series of essays G len wrote following this event What transpires from this collection is a seasoned leader who is going through all the blood sweat and tears to keep his ship afloat the crew and passengers safe and calm When the world seems to be in darkness we find G len calling out to his community that this Eclipse is over and inspires them how to be Travelers to the Light As he leads his followers on this journey he teaches how they should hold themselves to account by Facing the Self While feeling Pity for the perpetrators of all the persecution they are going through G len shows the path on to how to Heal and take action So Others May Live The Spirituality of Responsibility Simon Robinson,2018-11-29 Turkish Islamic leader Fethullah G len offers a distinctive view of responsibility which is explored here for the first time Simon Robinson shows how G len s writings influenced by both orthodox Islam and the Sufi tradition contribute a dynamic holistic and interactive view of responsibility which locates personal identity agency and freedom in plural relationships The Spirituality of Responsibility also explores the practice of responsibility in G len s life and in the Hizmet movement which he founded G len has been at the centre of many controversies including in his Movement s relationship with the Turkish government Charting G len s response from the Israeli Gaza blockade through to more recent crises the book critiques aspects of both this practice and underlying ideas and argues that responsibility focused in dialogue and peace building is continuing to evolve in the leadership and practice of the movement providing a challenge to conventional views of governance and responsibility This book is an important contribution both to the theological and philosophical debate about responsibility but also to the practice of responsibility focused in creative action debates in business and contemporary society about responsible governance and enterprise A Muslim Sage Among Peers John D. Barton,2017-10-03 This volume puts Fethullah Gulen and the Hizmet movement in dialogue with Christian theologians philosophers and organizations concerning areas of shared interest The Christian voices represented in these constructed dialogues are diverse contemporary and historical Catholic and Protestant theological and pragmatic While all of the essays explore overlaps and similarities between Gulen and these dialogue partners they also bring to the surface differences and critical assessments The result is a multi faceted conversation that invites us all into deeper levels of historical and theological imagination self reflection and collaborative service

The Gülen Movement Gürkan Çelik,2010 The existence of social conflicts and the lack of social cohesion are at the center of public debates in many societies In recent years these issues have often been linked to Muslims and their religious beliefs The Islamic response to these allegations and the social problems evoking them has been diverse this book concerns the reply of a transnational movement of volunteers inspired by the teachings of Fethullah G len a Turkish Muslim scholar This study represents an attempt to incorporate the G len Movement also called the Volunteers Movement into a social movement theory approach In pluralist societies there are different communication structures and different ways of conflict resolution The G len Movement proposes and practices dialogue and education as two means to establish peace by maintaining social cohesion and mending the social cleavages dividing Muslims and non Muslims It is not only G len s spiritual message that has inspired people to pursuit sic these ideals but also his leadership By focusing on its spiritual intellectual and practical dimension and its social background this book contributes to a comprehensive understanding of one of the most promising contemporary social movements Publisher s description back cover

No Return from Democracy Faruk Mercan,2017-10-01 It was rare if not impossible to find in 80s and 90s a Muslim cleric who spoke in favor of democracy integration with the Western world and universal human values Fethullah G len was one of those Many of his avant garde ideas did not only earn him one of the largest and most influential faith inspired social movements of recent history but also many foes especially from the Turkish ruling elite placing him in the center of many social and political developments in Turkey Despite the enormous defamation from some political groups in Turkey G len is recognized in the world as a devout Muslim cleric whose thoughts and life style are deeply rooted in the Islamic faith but who also believes Islam is not in conflict with the progressive values of the modern world This book collates G len s ahead of his time comments on some of the debated issues as he phrased in interviews in the past few decades

Between Thought and Action Ori Z Soltes,2022-10-01 This volume has two goals One is to explore the life and the thought of Fethullah G len and the important educational and peace inducing activities in which he and those inspired by him have been engaged for several decades The outcome of those efforts of creating schools and providing diverse social and cultural services that bring people together people from diverse backgrounds has been to provide the face of civic and civil Islam as an antidote to the uglier side of political Islam The second goal has been to make clear how the accusations against Mr G len by the minions of Recep Tayyip Erdo an could hardly be more false that what G len and the hizmet service movement that he has inspired are ultimately about is improving the world and saving it form its uglier inclinations A brief discussion of his life and thought has been supplemented by the voices of more than 70 interviews conducted over several years with individuals intimate and more distant but all inspired to be part of the process of serving humanity

Hizmet in Africa David Shinn, 2015-07-14 Hizmet in Africa: The Activities and Significance of the Gulen Movement is the only book length work that analyzes the multifaceted activities in Africa of the followers of Turkish Islamic scholar Fethullah Gulen who has lived in exile in rural Pennsylvania since 1999. In 2008 Foreign Policy magazine named Gulen as the world's top public intellectual. Gulen and the followers of his philosophy refer to the Movement as Hizmet or volunteers service while others tend to call it the Gulen Movement. The book includes Hizmet in both North Africa and Sub-Saharan Africa. There are more than 100 Gulen inspired primary middle and secondary schools in Africa and the number is growing. Some African cities have a Gulen affiliated dialogue or interfaith center and organization of businessmen who follow Gulen's principles. There is a global charitable organization Kimse Yok Mu that has extensive operations in Africa. The Gulen affiliated media empire based in Turkey and New Jersey now reaches out to Africa. Gulen inspired projects include a university in Nigeria, the largest mosque in the southern hemisphere in South Africa, a hospital in Somalia, and student dormitories in Morocco. This Movement did not exist in Africa twenty years ago. Relatively few Africans and outsiders are aware of its activities in Africa. The schools, for example, are often known as Turkish schools. Few people understand they are linked to Hizmet or the Gulen Movement. The book documents Hizmet activity based on visits in 2012 and 2013 to South Africa, Tanzania, Kenya, Ethiopia, Nigeria, Senegal, Morocco, and Turkey, and meetings with a wide range of Hizmet representatives working in other countries in Africa. It also draws on journalistic reports of Hizmet activity and that which has been published in academic books, journals, and papers. The book analyzes the significance of the Movement for both Turkey and Africa and explores the link between the Movement and Turkish business persons who provide most of the funding.

Fethullah Gulen and the Gulen Movement in 100 Questions Dogu Ergil, 2013-02-27 Understanding both Fethullah Gulen, a moderate Turkish Muslim scholar, and the Gulen Movement, a global network of volunteers, teachers, students, intellectuals, and business people who are inspired by Gulen's philosophy based on dialog and peaceful coexistence, is vital to making any sort of predictions about the direction that Turkey might be headed in the next years. Who is Fethullah Gulen? What is Gulen's worldview and what are his fundamental ideas about society and the state? How does Gulen view history and what does he consider the most important events? What are the basic principles of the Gulen movement? These questions and more are posed and answered in detail in this book.

Fethullah Gülen's Teaching and Practice Paul Weller, 2022-05-04 This is the first book of its kind about the Turkish Muslim scholar Fethullah Gulen since the July 2016 events in Turkey, the trauma experienced by Gulen and the disruption to initiatives inspired by his teaching, known as Hizmet. Drawing on primary interviews with Gulen and Hizmet participants and a literature review, this Open Access book locates the clear origins of Gulen's teaching in the Qur'an and Sunnah in dynamic engagement with their geographical, temporal, and existential reception, translation, and onward communication It argues that as Hizmet cannot be understood apart from G len and his teaching G len and his teaching cannot be understood apart from Hizmet while exploring the heritage of both A more geographically focused case study is set out in author Paul Weller s Hizmet in Transitions European Developments of a Turkish Muslim Inspired Movement also published by Palgrave Macmillan 2022
