Rambaran-Olm, 2014 Edition translation and full critical study of a hitherto marginalised text bringing it to full attention for the first time The Old English poem known popularly as the Descent into Hell found on folios 119v to 121v of the Exeter Book has to date received little critical attention perhaps owing to various contextual problems and lacunae on the leaves that contain it This first full length study offers a full account of the poem together with an edition of the text and facing translation It aims to resolve some of the poem's vexing issues and provides a variety of possible interpretations of the poem The in depth literary analysis seeks to enrich modern scholarly perceptions of the poem suggest a more appropriate title and contribute to continued scholarly discussion and analysis of the Exeter Book and its compilation It provides a guide towards understanding the poem's main theme presents the text in light of its position in ecclesiastical history and sheds fresh light into its place and significance within the corpus of Old English poetry M R Rambaran Olm received her PhD from the University of Glasgow Constantine's Sword James Carroll, 2002-04-01 The monumental New York Times bestseller in which a Catholic explores the problem of anti-Semitism through Church history The Washington Post A Los Angeles Times Best Book of the Year and a New York Times Notable Book In this masterly history Time National Book Award winning author James Carroll maps the profoundly troubling two thousand year course of the Church's battle against Judaism and faces the crisis of faith it has provoked in his own life as a Catholic More than a chronicle of religion this dark history is the central tragedy of Western civilization its fault lines reaching deep into our culture The Church's failure to protest the Holocaust the infamous silence of Pius XII is only part of the story the death camps Carroll shows are the culmination of a long entrenched tradition of anti Judaism From Gospel accounts of the death of Jesus on the cross to Constantine's transformation of the cross into a sword to the rise of blood libels scapegoating and modern anti-Semitism Carroll reconstructs the dramatic story of the Church's conflict not only with Jews but with itself Yet in tracing the arc of this narrative he implicitly affirms that it did not necessarily have to be so There were roads not taken heroes forgotten new roads can be taken yet Demanding that the Church finally face this past in full Carroll calls for a fundamental rethinking of the deepest questions of Christian faith Only then can Christians Jews and all who carry the burden of this history begin to forge a new future Carroll discusses the history of Christian Jewish relations honestly touchingly and personally Carroll investigates his own prejudices as a believing Christian a former Catholic priest and a long time civil rights activist As he unearths history using all the best sources he also encounters emotions he didn't realize he had and shows how his historical journey was also a personal pilgrimage of faith
