Eiken Speaking Test Study Guide:

Trends in Language Assessment Research and Practice Vahid Aryadoust, Janna Fox, 2016-02-29 Despite prodigious developments in the field of language assessment in the Middle East and the Pacific Rim research and practice in these areas have been underrepresented in mainstream literature This volume takes a fresh look at language assessment in these regions and provides a unique overview of contemporary language assessment research In compiling this book the editors have tapped into the knowledge of language and educational assessment experts whose diversity of perspectives and experience has enriched the focus and scope of language and educational assessment in general and the present volume in particular The six trends addressed in the 26 chapters that comprise this title consider such contemporary topics as data mining in class assessment and washback The contributors explore new approaches and techniques in language assessment including advances resulting from multidisciplinary collaboration with researchers in computer science genetics and neuroscience The current trends and promising new directions identified in this volume and the research reported here suggest that researchers across the Middle East and the Pacific Rim are playing and will continue to play an important role in advancing the quality utility and fairness of language testing and assessment practices Towards a New Paradigm for English Language Teaching Hajime Terauchi, Judy Noguchi, Akira Tajino, 2019-10-30 This book proposes a new paradigm for English language teaching based on concepts from English for Specific Purposes ESP research and applications as well as from growing evidence relating pattern recognition to language learning ability The contributors to the volume argue that learners should not try to become proficient all around users of idealistic native like English but instead should be realistic about what they need to acquire and how to go about achieving their specific goals The book discusses the present situation by describing the status quo of English language education in Japan taking into consideration recent trends of CLIL content and language integrated learning EMI English medium instruction and TBLT task based language teaching as well as the work done on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEFR It introduces new movements in ESP in Japan and in other Asian regions covering topics ranging from genre analysis to corpus linguistics and presents application examples of ESP practice in a range of educational situations in Japan from the graduate school level to elementary and middle school contexts It also offers readers application examples of ESP practice in a range of business settings and expands the discussion to the global sphere where EAP and ESP are gaining importance as the number of ELF English as a Lingua Franca speakers continue to increase The book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students working in the fields of EFL and ESL CALL Design: Principles and Practice - Proceedings of the 2014 EUROCALL Conference, Groningen, The Netherlands Sake Jager, Linda Bradley, Estelle J. Meima, Sylvie Thouésny, 2014-12-14 Proceedings of the 2014 EUROCALL Conference which was held from the 20th to the 23rd of August 2014 at the University of Groningen The Netherlands Classroom Practice and Teacher Cognition Nicholas Bradley, 2024-10-26 This collection occupies the middle ground between teachers showcasing their work and academics presenting research that is often situated in irreplicable uncommon or impractical classroom settings The work presented here is provided by full time university language educators who maintain a robust and active research agenda that focuses on their own classroom practice Whether one wishes to label it under action research exploratory practice reflective practice or other the findings of the research into their own practices and educational contexts are accessible and will resonate strongly with both practicing teachers and academics investigating classroom practice and teacher cognition All articles are written with the aim of developing practice in a way that is recognisable to teachers and beneficial to their educational efforts Indeed recent literature calls for guidance to come from those actively engaged in classroom teaching and who apply sound research methods to the daily contexts lived by teachers and students

Studies in Japanese Bilingualism Mary Goebel Noguchi, Sandra Fotos, 2001 Studies in Japanese Bilingualism helps dissolve the myth of Japanese homogeneity by explaining the history of this construct and offering twelve empirical studies on different facets of language contact in Japan including Ainu revitalisation Korean language maintenance creative use of Ryukyuan languages in Okinawa English immersion and language use by Nikkei immigrants Chinese War Orphans and bicultural children as well as codeswitching and language attrition in Japanese contexts

English Language Proficiency Testing in Asia Lily I-Wen Su, Cyril J. Weir, Jessica R. W. Wu, 2019-11-19 As the demand for English language education grows in Asia there has been a parallel growth in the development and implementation of standardized tests at the local level Offering much needed context on locally produced tests in Asia contributors examine emerging models for English language assessment and the impact these large scale tests have on the teaching and learning of English Chapters address the following well known and developing high stakes tests in different regions across Asia the GEPT the TEPS the VSTEP the CET the EIKEN and TEAP and the ELPA Brought together by world renowned testing assessment scholar Cyril Weir and the Language Training and Testing Center LTTC one of Asia's leading testing institutions based in Taiwan this volume is a useful reference for evaluating developing and validating local tests of English and their societal impact Comprehensive and research based chapters cover historic backgrounds sociocultural contexts test quality international standing and future considerations Ideal for graduate students researchers and scholars in language assessment TESOL TEFL and applied linguistics this book will also be of interest to language teaching professionals language test developers and graduate students in Asian studies and international education intercultural communication and intercultural studies
