Karakatsanis, Jonathan Swarts, 2014-11-25 This volume of Political and Military Sociology focuses on the perceptions and identities of those serving in the military using survey or interview data to explore those perceptions. A range of military forces are examined including those of the United States Israel Norway and Denmark. The first article using survey data from Denmark compares the views of Danish soldiers to civilians. The second article looks at the effects of military education upon the attitudes and values of soldiers. The third article explores Israeli soldiers' attitudes regarding formal military education. The fourth article addresses the impact of Norwegian soldiers' self identity on military performance. In a different vein the survey results of the fifth article show that support for soldiers on active duty in Iraq and Afghanistan does not necessarily translate into support for veterans. Military lawyers in the Israel Defense Forces are the subject of the sixth article. This volume concludes with an article that argues that military service should be offered as a legal policy alternative to incarceration. Encyclopedia of Military Science G. Kurt Piehler, 2013-07-24 The Encyclopedia of Military Science provides a comprehensive ready reference on the organization traditions training purpose and functions of today's military. Entries in this four volume work include coverage of the duties responsibilities and authority of military personnel and an understanding of strategies and tactics of the modern military and how they interface with political social legal economic and technological factors. A large component is devoted to issues of leadership group dynamics motivation problem solving and decision making in the military context. Finally this work also covers recent American military history since the end of the Cold War with a special emphasis on peacekeeping and peacemaking operations the First Persian Gulf War the events surrounding 9/11 and the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and how the military has been changing in relation to these events.
