Cows, Pigs, Wars, and Witches Marvin Harris, 2011-07-13 One of America's leading anthropologists offers solutions to the perplexing question of why people behave the way they do Why do Hindus worship cows Why do Jews and Moslems refuse to eat pork Why did so many people in post medieval Europe believe in witches Marvin Harris answers these and other perplexing questions about human behavior showing that no matter how bizarre a people's behavior may seem it always stems from identifiable and intelligible sources Cows, Pigs, Wars, & Witches Marvin Harris, 1977 Cows, Pigs, Wars

"Mother Cow" Marvin Harris, 1989 The Culture Struggle Michael Parenti, 2011-01-04 One of America's most astute and engaging political analysts Michael Parenti shows us that culture is a changing process and the product of a dynamic interplay between a wide range of social and political interests Drawing from cultures around the world Parenti shows that beliefs and practices are readily subjected to political manipulation and that many parts of culture are being commodified separated from their group or communal origins to be packaged and sold to those who can pay for them Folk culture is giving way to a corporate market culture Art science medicine and psychiatry can be used as instruments of cultural control and even marriage the foundation of society has been misused by heterosexuals across the centuries Using vivid examples and riveting arguments throughout ranging from the everyday to the esoteric and penned with eloquence and irony The Culture Struggle presents a collection of snapshots of our time The Path of the Devil Gary F. Jensen, 2007 The Path of the Devil is organized around three fundamental theories witch hunts as functional sacrificial ceremonies realistic conflict and strategic persecution and scapegoat phenomena All conjectures point to the role of epidemic disease war and climactic and economic hardships as considerable factors However such crises have to be differentiated when war is measured as a quantitative characteristic it is found to inhibit witch hunts while epidemic disease and economic hardship encourages them The book integrates the sociologies of collective behavior contentious conflict and deviance with cross disciplinary theory and research The final chapters examine the Salem witch trials as a perfect storm and illustrate the general patterns found for early modern witch hunts and modern witch hunts which exhibit similarities that are found to be more than metaphorical

American Society Daniel W. Rossides, 1993 This text invites students to pursue a career in sociology entices others to consider advanced courses and yet serves those who will take but one sociology course This basic textbook for Introduction to Sociology can also serve well in courses in American Society We think What We Eat Seth Daniel Kunin, 2004-10-05 In We Think What We Eat Seth Kunin presents both an appreciation and critique of Professor Mary Douglas's classical work on Israelite food rules He places her arguments into the context of related anthropological approaches and suggests a new interpretation of the food rules system based on a rigorous application of structuralist theory Kunin then goes on to extend this analysis to other areas of Israelite culture Through detailed analysis of texts from Genesis Exodus and Judges he demonstrates that the same structural pattern found in the first section in respect of ritual is also characteristic of the mythological material This section of the book also takes up the issue of structural transformation It examines the processes found as the myths move from the Israelite context to that of the rabbis the authors of the New Testament and of the Book of Mormon The arguments presented demonstrate that as the myths move from culture to culture diachronically and geographically while the same mythological elements are retained they are restructured and organized based on the structural needs of the new cultural context Kunin is also interested in issues of structuralist theory Thus he addresses issues related to the processes of structural transformation suggesting processes that lead to changes in structural emphasis and those relating to more significant transformations This is volume 412 in the Journal for the Study of the Old Testament Supplement series
