Mataga,Dawson Munjeri,2022-04-03 Independent Museums and Culture Centres in Colonial and Post colonial Zimbabwe presents case studies that grapple with the issue of decolonising practice in privately owned museums and cultural centres in Zimbabwe Including contributions from academics and practitioners this book focusses on privately run cultural institutions and highlights that there has until now been scant scholarly information about their existence and practice Arguing that the recent resurgence of such museums which are not usually obliged to endorse official narratives of the central government points to some desire to decolonise and indigenise museums the contributors explore approaches that have been used to reconfigure such colonially inherited institutions to suit the post colonial terrain The volume also explores how privately owned museums can tap into or contribute to current conversations on decoloniality that encourage reflexivity inclusivity de patriarchy multivocality community participation and agency Exploring the motives and purpose of such institutions the book argues that they are being utilised to confront deeply entrenched stigmatisation and marginalisation Independent Museums and Culture Centres in Colonial and Post colonial Zimbabwe demonstrates that post colonial African museums have become an arena for negotiating history legacies and identities The book will be of interest to academics and students around the world who are engaged in the study of museums and heritage African studies history and culture It will also appeal to museum practitioners working across Africa and beyond Museum ,1992 □□□□ □□,2009 Tourism, Culture & Communication ,2004 Unesco List of Documents and Publications Unesco,1994 Ecomuseums, Place-based

Education and Environmental Education Caitlin Coyne,2012 The Ecomuseum is a museum model largely unknown in the United States museum field It is a model that utilizes place as a key part of its formation and interpretation Likewise the educational models of Environmental and Place based Education also utilize place as a defining concept This thesis is a unified body of work exploring the concept of place through these three models in order to create a guide for museum educators interested in exploring the uses and history of place centered learning While research on the effectiveness and proliferation of Environmental and Place based education as well as Ecomuseums exists in abundance my focus was on the evolution and definitions of these terms The ultimate goal was the creation of a guide for any educator interested in study of place centered learning Museum International ,2004 Collections ,2007 Museums & die omgewing ,1993
