Comparing Texts Across Genres:

Persuasion Across Genres Helena Halmari, Tuija Virtanen, 2005-02-17 Persuasion in its various linguistic forms enters our lives daily Politicians and the news media attempt to change or confirm our beliefs while advertisers try to bend our tastes toward buying their products Persuasion goes on in courtrooms universities and the business world Persuasion pervades interpersonal relations in all social spheres public and private And persuasion reaches us via a large number of genres and their intricate interplay This volume brings together nine chapters which investigate some of the typical genres of modern persuasion Using both quantitative and qualitative methods the authors explore the linguistic features of successful and unsuccessful persuasion and the reasons for the variation of persuasive choices as realized in various genres business negotiations judicial argumentation political speech advertising newspaper editorials and news writing In the final chapter the editors tie together the two themes persuasion and genres by proposing an Intergenre Model This model assumes that a powerful force behind generic evolution is the perennial need for implicit persuasion Integrating Children's Literature through the Common Core State Standards Rachel L. Wadham, Terrell A. Young, 2015-07-28 Implementation of the Common Core State Standards with the integration of children's literature can transform teaching and learning into a holistic and engaging experience Tackling nearly every aspect of the English Language Arts Standards and the measures they employ it offers a thorough plan for engaging elementary school students with literature It explores the benefits and teaching principles behind CCSS and explains how to apply them to literature Along with the strengths it has in connection to CCSS you will learn about the history of children's literature and what both fiction and nonfiction bring to the classroom You will find plenty of practical applications of the CCSS including book lists and lesson ideas along with thorough examples There is also a wealth of information on the kinds of readers you will encounter and explanations of how to meet their needs A final section focuses on creating a curriculum connecting the theory throughout the book with concrete lessons plans and units that cover the main CCSS skill sets Now Read On Malachi Edwin Vethamani, John McRae, 2005-08-12 Now Read On brings together literatures in English from around the world combining an excellent choice of texts with sound methodological guidance It contains approximately eighty texts and extracts from countries and continents including Africa Australia Great Britain India Malaysia New Zealand Philippines Singapore Designed as course for both native and non native English speakers in how to read literature this anthology begins with shorter starter texts and questions and develops in complexity as the reader progresses through the book Now Read On provides the user with hands on experience of working with a plurality of texts from around the world questions exercises pointers and commentary accompanying all the passages of literature and providing the student with the tools and confidence to critically evaluate any text an understanding of the major genres poetry short stories drama and novels Corpus Triangulation Sofia Malamatidou, 2017-09-20 Despite the recognition that corpus based translation research would benefit from the triangulation of corpora little has been done in the direction of actually employing combined corpus data and methods in the field This book aims to address this gap by providing a much needed detailed account of corpus triangulation where different corpora e g parallel comparable synchronic diachronic and or different methods of analysis e g qualitative quantitative can be used to increase our understanding of the phenomena where translation plays a key role The book also demonstrates clearly how the proposed methodology can be fruitfully employed to investigate different linguistic features through its systematic application to empirical data The first part of the book introduces the innovative framework for corpus triangulation which is based on a new and comprehensive corpus typology while the second part applies the methodological framework to two case studies examining the language of translation and the relationship between translation and language change The book advances current translation studies in terms of methodology innovation and offers a model on which future studies investigating the network of relationships surrounding translated texts can be based
