Cohesion In English Halliday:

Cohesion in English M.A.K. Halliday, Ruqaiya Hasan, 2014-01-14 Cohesion in English is concerned with a relatively neglected part of the linguistic system its resources for text construction the range of meanings that are specifically associated with relating what is being spoken or written to its semantic environment A principal component of these resources is cohesion This book studies the cohesion that arises from semantic relations between sentences Reference from one to the other repetition of word meanings the conjunctive force of but so then and the like are considered Further it describes a method for analysing and coding sentences which is applied to specimen texts Cohesion in English Michael Alexander Kirkwood Halliday, 1976 Cohesion in English M. A. K. Halliday, Ruqaiya Hasan, 1979 New Research on Cohesion and Coherence in Linguistics Zhang Delu, Liu Rushan, 2021-09-15 The study of text cohesion and coherence has been a topic of heated discussion in Linguistics since the 1990s Western linguists have developed two major theoretical frameworks to describe the relationship between the two concepts one posits that cohesive devices are important means to ensure cohesion the other argues that coherence does not rely on cohesion Yet neither has complete explanatory power over reality nor can they solve real life problems This title proposes a creative concrete and highly operational theoretical model that unites cohesion and coherence using authentic English or Chinese examples The authors clarify the concepts of coherence and expand the scope of the research by focusing on a variety of internal and external factors such as psycho cognitive and socio cultural factors Moreover the authors propose that the new theoretical paradigm can be applied to a range of other disciplines including translation and foreign language teaching This title has been one of the most cited works on cohesion and coherence in China Students and scholars of discourse analysis linguistics and language education will find this an invaluable reference Systemic Functional Linguistics Christian M.I.M. Matthiessen, Kazuhiro Teruya, 2023-07-31 This user friendly student guide is the essential resource for all those engaged in studying systemic functional linguistics SFL Assuming no prior knowledge this guide is divided into nine chapters which can be read independently of one another and used for purposes of reference The reading section maps out and mediates the key SFL literature The application guides show how SFL has been and can be applied to various domains from translation to healthcare communication The term guides demystify the core terminology and the vocabulary guides aid readers in dealing with the most commonly used terms in text analysis Systemic Functional Linguistics is an invaluable guidebook for all those studying functional grammar and SFL within linguistics applied linguistics and related courses A Systemic Functional Grammar of Chinese Nominal Groups Jing Fang, 2022-09-13 This book describes the grammar of Chinese nominal groups for the purpose of text analysis drawing upon Halliday s systemic functional linguistics SFL model Exploring the metafunctional grammatical resources in nominal groups the book provides a new perspective on conducting text analysis by focusing on the metafunctions performed by various elements in the nominal group The observations on nominal groups presented here are based on both a working corpus of 180 texts of various types and a large referential corpus of over 16 billion tokens With clear descriptions of the terminology used the book presents a case study at the end of each major chapter which demonstrates how the grammatical resources discussed can be applied to the delicate analysis of authentic texts This monograph is more than a grammar book for it offers a new way to engage with a text microscopically and enables readers to approach and analyse a text by focusing on grammatical units below the clause level The book provides an accessible and valuable resource for readers who are interested in SFL based typological description text analysis translation studies between English and Chinese English Chinese comparative linguistic studies and Chinese language teaching and learning

Text Complexity and Reading Comprehension Tests Erik Castello, 2008 Based on the analysis of a specially compiled corpus of internationally recognized English as a foreign language EFL reading tests at different levels of proficiency this volume explores the relation between the complexity of written texts and the difficulty of reading comprehension tests It brings together linguistic investigations into the text inherent complexity of the tests and a study of the data derived from their administration to groups of Italian university students The study of text complexity draws on corpus linguistics text linguistics and systemic functional linguistics Both quantitative and qualitative analyses are carried out on the language used in the reading texts and in the related tasks that make up the corpus of tests The assessment of test difficulty on the other hand is informed by research on language testing and in particular by findings and methodologies of Classical Test Theory and Item Response Theory Relevant aspects of these theories are used to analyze and interpret both the data obtained from the administration of the tests and the data collected by means of feedback questionnaires completed by test takers The application of such diverse methodologies and the subsequent comparison of the results of the analyses has brought out interesting correlations between text inherent complexity perceived test difficulty and actual test difficulty

Suffering in the Face of Death Bryan R. Dyer, 2017-04-20 Suffering and death are two topics that are frequently referred to in the Epistle to the Hebrews but have rarely been examined within scholarship on this important New Testament text Dyer redresses the balance in this study of these topics conducting a thorough investigation using semantic domain analysis He incorporates recent advancements in modern linguistics in particular the context of situation and then connects these topics to the social situation addressed in Hebrews In so doing he is able to reveal how the author is responding to the reality of suffering in the lives of his audience With this awareness it becomes clear how the author also responds to his audience's pain by creating models of endurance in suffering and death These serve to motivate his audience toward similar endurance within their own social context Dyer shows that it is possible to make significant determinations about the social setting of Hebrews based upon an examination and analysis of the language used therein

An Analysis of Comprehension Problems Based on Discourse Analysis and Relevance Theory Christian Kreß, 2011-08-04 Thesis M A from the year 2010 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1.5 University of Tübingen language English abstract It is a linguistic reality of today's world that English has become a lingua franca for the world. It is the global language of economy, technology, international politics, and the internet. In roughly 80% of communication in English, no native speakers are involved. As Smith and Nelson (1985) state, "Native speakers are no longer the sole judges of what is intelligible in English" (p. 1). Only recently have scholars in applied linguistics conducted research on the characteristics of the use of ELF (English as a Lingua Franca) in interactions between non-native speakers of English. For the purpose of ELF research, large corpora such as VOICE, Vienna Oxford International Corpus of English, and the Tübingen Midwestern Corpus have been built up, containing data from naturally occurring ELF exchanges. Also at the University of Tübingen, a corpus of this kind is currently being compiled: the Tübingen Midwestern Corpus, which contains group discussions on a given economic topic. Most of the discussion participants are international students with different first language backgrounds. Some discussions also include a native speaker of English. There has to date not been a uniform and systematic approach regarding the analysis of comprehension problems in these Midwestern discussions. In this thesis, I will design a structured set of questions for a standardized retrospective interview that serves to efficiently analyse comprehension problems. As the investigation of comprehension problems must go beyond an analysis of purely linguistic features of an interaction, syntax, morphology, phonology, and situational circumstances in which the interaction takes place will also be taken into account. These standardized retrospective interview questions will be applied to four group discussions taken from the Midwestern corpus.

For the analysis of the data, see Cohesion in English (M. A. K. Halliday, 1985), Trends in English Text Linguistics (Gottfried Graustein, Albrecht Neubert, 1979), Introduction to Systemic Functional Linguistics (Suzanne Egging, 2004-01-01). Introduction to systemic functional linguistics explores the social semiotic approach to language most closely associated with the work of Michael Halliday and his colleagues.

Perspectives on Academic Persian (Abbas Aghdassi, 2021-09-17) This book focuses on the idea of Academic Persian in the growing competition of many Middle Eastern languages to produce and highlight their academic discourse. Similar to academic English, most West Asian languages including Persian, Turkish, and Arabic are developing new styles and genres to produce academic texts. The book addresses a major question: What is academic Persian? Intended for researchers, experts, analysts, policy makers, and students in Persian, Iranian studies, and Islamic studies, as well as Near Eastern languages and Middle Eastern cultures and languages, the book includes numerous technical contributions on the emerging markets involving West Asian languages. Since indexing, abstracting, crawling, metrics, citations, and visibility are becoming hot issues for academics, service providers (e.g. publishers) and policy makers (e.g. university heads), a knowledge of academic Persian will help readers to grasp what Persian and other similar languages require in academic markets.

A Cohesive Presence (Klára Weiss-Balla, 1992) This study deals with the girl characters in James Joyce's A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man. It presents a close reading of the references to these figures with special attention to the word stock of the relevant text fragments. The examination reveals a great number of recurrent lexical and structural elements. They combine the individual fragments into one cohesive subtext that conveys a coherent girl image

Investigating the Discourse Competence in Essay Writing with Reference to the Third Level EFL Students Fadhel Mohsen Mohammed Mohammed,2019-04-01 Master s Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject Speech Science Linguistics grade Excellent course Writing language English abstract Writing is considered as a difficult process even in the first language L1 It is even more complicated to write in a foreign language FL Writing in a FL often presents the greatest challenge to the students at all stages of their learning particularly essay writing students write essays without serious grammatical errors or misspellings however their essays are still disconnected and incoherent This illogicality is mainly caused by the errors at the discourse level EFL third level English students at Faculty of Education Radfan often face many problems when they write essays in English Thus this study aims at investigating the students discourse competence in essay writing This study also aims at exploring the causes that make the students commit discourse errors and to what extent the students incompetency affects their writing negatively To find out the reasons that might lead to the problems under investigation two instruments were employed to collect data the first instrument was the teachers questionnaire which was responded to by five teachers who teach writing and composition in the Department of English at Faculty of Education Radfan The second one was the students writing task through which twenty five students were required to write an argumentative essay The analyses and interpretations of the result obtained by the two instruments can be summed up as follows The teachers supplied the researcher with valuable information that made the students commit discourse errors when writing essays Besides they emphasized on the importance of drawing the students attention to the grammatical and lexical cohesive devices to help them write proficiently Moreover they suggested some methods and strategies to be taken during teaching writing to overcome the students problems The results obtained through the analyses of the students writing task showed that the students errors might be attributed to the inappropriate use of grammatical and lexical cohesive devices such as the overuse of some devices and the absence of the others however the overuse was not appropriate It was also noticed that the students managed to use some cohesive devices of each type but they showed their ignorance of the others as in the case of substitution and ellipsis which were barely used however that use was wrong On the basis of the findings the researcher proposed some solutions and suggestions that might help to overcome the problem
