The Academy and Literature, 1908 The Monthly Army List Great Britain. Army, 1917 Veiled Warriors Christine E. Hallett, 2014-08-28 Caring for the wounded of the First World War was tough and challenging work demanding extensive knowledge technical skill and high levels of commitment Although allied nurses were admired in their own time for their altruism and courage their image was distorted by the lens of popular mythology They came to be seen as self sacrificing heroines romantic foils to the male combatant and doctors handmaidens rather than being appreciated as trained professionals performing significant work in their own right Christine Hallett challenges these myths to reveal the true story of allied nursing in the First World War one which is both more complex and more absorbing Drawing upon evidence from archives across the world Veiled Warriors offers a compelling account of nurses wartime experiences and a clear appraisal of their work and its contribution to the allied cause between 1914 and 1918 on both the Western and the Eastern Fronts Nurses believed they were involved in a multi layered battle Primarily they were fighting for the lives of their patients on the second battlefield of casualty clearing stations transports and military hospitals Beyond this they were an integral component of the allied military machine putting their own lives at risk in field hospitals close to the front lines on board hospital ships vulnerable to enemy submarine attack and in base hospitals subject to heavy bombardment As working women in a sometimes hostile chauvinistic world allied nurses were also fighting to gain recognition for their profession and political rights for their sex For them military nursing might help to win not only the war itself but also a more powerful voice for women in the post war world Ethical Deliberation in Multiprofessional Health Care Teams Hubert Doucet, Jean-Marc Larouche, Kenneth R. Melchin, 2001-06-26 This study analyzes both pragmatic and theoretical perspectives of ethical deliberation as well as the professional and philosophical backgrounds for the ethical deliberation of social workers nurses and doctors working in the field of chronic illness In doing so this volume expands the scope of current research through an analysis of the process and its dynamics Published in English Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton, Charles Edward Doble, James Sutherland Cotton, Charles Lewis Hind, William Teignmouth Shore, Alfred Bruce Douglas, Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, Thomas William Hodgson Crosland, 1908 The Academy, 1907 Indiana University Bulletin, 1994 The Spectator, 1906 End of Life in Care Homes Jeanne Samson Katz, Sheila M. Peace, 2003-04-03 In our society the overwhelming majority of people die in later life They typically die slowly of chronic diseases with multiple co existing problems over long periods of time They spend the majority of their final years at home but many will die in hospitals or care homes This book explores the possibilities for improving the care of older people dying in residential care and nursing homes It argues that there are aspects of palliative care that given the right circumstances are transferable to dying people in settings that are not domestic or hospice based End of Life in Care Homes describes what happens in nursing and residential care homes when a resident is dying how carers cope and the practical health and emotional challenges that carers face on top of their day to day work Based on detailed research from both the UK and US the book shows how the situation can be improved
