

The background is a soft watercolor illustration of a rural landscape. In the foreground, there's a field with patches of yellow and orange, suggesting autumn. A dark fence runs across the middle ground. In the background, there's a house with a brown roof and some trees. The sky is a mix of light purple and blue, with a few birds flying. The overall style is gentle and artistic.

Ripples of God'S Love Carol Crouch,2011-01-18 Real life is not perfect There are good days and bad There are burdens that feel too heavy to bear lonely nights and hopeless days It would be easy to give up Yet the world tells us to be strong keep going and get tough If we keep going well find what were looking for well move in the right direction But how is it possible to find our direction when lost in darkness Ripples of Gods Love speaks volumes in the gloom offering hope to the despairing Told through inspired poetry it shares the reflection of a life lived in the light of Gods love Author Carol Crouch uses life experiences combined with nature analogies and scriptural references to present an alternate and God focused way to view the unexpected and unreasonable circumstances in life This altered world view enables the influx of peace understanding and faith in an all knowing creator Our lives were never intended to be humdrum Daily trials should never be viewed as punishments Instead through poetry discover an exciting new side of your life a side filled with the beauty and blessing of nature The transition is simple God is waiting to fill you with comfort and hope merely view the world through a filter of living moment by joyous moment in Christ
