Provoking Religion Anthony Michael Petro,Petro,2025 In the late twentieth century artists were on the front lines of the culture wars Leaders of the Christian Right in the U S made a national spectacle out of feminist and queer art blasting it as sacrilegious or pornographic and sometimes both On the bully pulpits of television and talk radio as well as in the halls of Congress conservatives denounced artists ranging from Robert Mapplethorpe and Judy Chicago to Marlon Riggs and David Wojnarowicz Conservatives alarmed by shifting sex and gender norms collided with progressive artists who were confronting sexism homophobia and racism In Provoking Religion Anthony Petro offers a compelling new history of the culture wars that places competing moralities of gender and sexuality alongside competing visions of the sacred The modern culture wars he shows are best understood not as contests pitting religious conservatives against secular activists but as a series of ongoing historical struggles to define the relationship between the sacred and the political Through captivating case studies of subversive artists Provoking Religion illuminates the underside of the culture wars revealing how progressive artists and activists rendered from those most apparently profane aspects of human life the stuff of conservatives worst nightmares their own haunting visions of the sacred HairStories, 2003 The cultural significance of black hair is reflected in all aspects of contemporary American culture from popular music and hip hop fashion to Hollywood films and professional sports HairStories explores the history style and meaning of black hair as seen through the eyes of three generations of major African American artists Inspired by the Urban Bush Womens performance HairStories the exhibition showcases more than 60 works by 27 artists and spans nearly a century of visual art pop culture music and literature HairStories considers hair as a reflection of history identity and race relations in America from the days of segregation to today The exhibition is organized around four themes the syndrome of good hair vs bad hair the importance of the barbershop and beauty salon as a center of the African American community the social and political symbolism of hairstyles and hair as an expression of individuality Http www smoca org exhibit php id 60 DPICT, 2001
