Common Core Lessons For Frindle:

Teaching with the Common Core Standards for English Language Arts, Grades 3-5 Lesley Mandel Morrow, Karen K. Wixson, Timothy Shanahan, 2012-11-29 Nearly every state has independently adopted the Common Core State Standards CCSS making this practical guide an indispensable resource for grades 3-5 teachers and teachers in training. Leading authorities explain each of the English language arts ELA standards and vividly show how to implement them. The book is filled with grade-specific classroom vignettes, instructional strategies, and activities, sample lesson plans, and discussion questions. Chapters cover the major ELA strands: reading, literature, informational texts, and foundational skills; writing; speaking and listening; and language. Issues of assessment and technology integration are also explored. An appendix includes thematic units for each grade level demonstrating ways to embed CCSS ELA standards into content area instruction. 30 Big-Idea Lessons for Small Groups Michael Rafferty, Colleen Morello, Paraskevi Rountos, 2016-04-13 30 Big Idea Lessons for Small Groups provides an amazing framework with a bank of engagement tools that gets students interacting with texts. Follow this unique 4-part process to develop students' literal, inferential, evaluative, and analytical skills: Engage Before Reading Students use a tactile tool like a topic card or a pyramid; Discuss During Reading Students read and mark up a short text; Deep See Think After Reading Students re-read and revise their interpretations together; Connect After Reading Students begin to transfer their understandings to other texts.

The School Story David Aitchison, 2022-02-04 The School Story: Young Adult Narratives in the Age of Neoliberalism examines the work of contemporary writers, filmmakers, and critics who, reflecting on the realm of school experience, help to shape dominant ideas of school. The creations discussed are mostly stories for children and young adults. David Aitchison looks at serious novels for teens, including Laurie R. King's Speak and Faiza Guane's Kiffe Kiffe Tomorrow, the light-hearted middle-grade fiction of Andrew Clements and Tommy Greenwald, and Malala Yousafzai's autobiography for young readers, I Am Malala. He also responds to stories that take young people as their primary subjects in such novels as Sapphire's Push and films including Battle Royale and Cooties. Though ranging widely in their accounts of young life, such stories betray a mounting sense of crisis in education around the world, especially in terms of equity: the extent to which students from diverse backgrounds have fair chances of receiving quality education and empowerment; the extent to which diverse students are encouraged to gain strength, confidence, and selfhood as learners. Drawing particular attention to the influence of neoliberal initiatives on school experience, this book considers what it means when learning and success are measured more and more by entrepreneurship, competitive individualism, and marketplace gains. Attentive to the ways in which power structures, institutional routines, school spaces, and social relations operate in the contemporary school story, The School Story offers provocative insights into a genre that speaks profoundly to the increasingly precarious position of education in the twenty-first century.
