RACHEL ANNE "RUSTY" STABLER

Rachel Michelle Stabler, who was born in America's landlocked heartland but came to cherish the saltwater paradise of her adopted home in the Florida Keys, died at her residence in Key Largo after a short illness. She was forty-six years old.

For decades, Rusty explored the waters of the Florida Bay, the Everglades, and the Gulf of Mexico, first as a youngster in her own skill, and later as a charter fishing guide, taking anglers onto the saltwater flats or into secluded mangrove swamps in search of tarpon, bonefish and other elusive prey.

Born in Starkville, Okla., Stabler arrived in the Keys at the age of six with her mother, Ellen Stabler, who had come to the Keys for a fresh start. Rusty completed high school at Coral Gables Senior High in Tavernier where she was a member of the cheerleading squad. "As a young girl, she fell in with a tough

Dead Last Thorn Mysteries:

Dead Last James W. Hall, 2011-11-22 From an acclaimed master of suspense New York Times Book Review comes a thriller in which Thorn must confront an assassin whose victims and methods are taken directly from the script of a popular TV show April Moss writes obituaries for the Miami Herald Her son Sawyer also a writer has been scripting a cable TV series called Miami Ops and has been using his mother's work as a central element of the show's storyline In Miami Ops a serial killer is using obituaries published in the local paper as a blueprint for selecting his next victims But midway through the season a copycat appears off screen a real life killer who is using the same strategy to select victims When this serial killer crosses paths with the reclusive Thorn he has no choice but to leave his sanctuary in Key Largo and join forces with a young policewoman from Oklahoma who is investigating the murders In addition to the show's head writer April's other son Sawyer's twin brother works on Miami Ops as the lead actor Could one of them be involved in the killings Or are they orchestrated by the director of the TV series an aging mogul who badly needs a hit And what about the female star of the show a deliciously strange young woman who seems willing to do anything to promote her career Thorn walks into this hotbed of entertainment business intrigue totally unprepared for the life altering shocker he's about to face This loner from Key Largo has brought down his share of killers but he's never confronted one that was his own flesh and blood With the pacing of a thriller and the lyrical prose for which Hall is renowned this story pits Thorn against a killer or killers whose motives are as elusive as their identities

I am eight years older now. It had never occurred to me that I am advancing in life and experience until, in setting myself to recall the various details of the affair, I suddenly remembered my timid confusion before the haughty mien of the clerk at Keith Prowse's. I had asked him, "Have you any amphitheatre seats for the Opera to night?" He did not reply. He merely put his lips together and waved his hand slowly from side to side. Not perceiving in my simplicity that he was thus expressing a sublime pity for the ignorance which my demand implied, I innocently proceeded to the balcony. This time he condescended to speak. "Nothing, sir. Then I understood that what he meant was, 'Poor fool, why don't you ask for the moon!'"
