The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 Literatuur als noodzaak G. F. H. Raat, 2010 Over de schrijver Willem Frederik Hermans 1921 1995 en zijn werk zijn al talloze boeken geschreven Literatuur als noodzaak is echter de eerste studie die de verschillende aspecten van zijn schrijverschap in hun onderlinge samenhang belicht Aan de hand van zijn verhalende en beschouwende proza laat G F H Raat zien hoe Hermans poëtica thematiek en techniek wortelen in zijn visie op het bestaan Hermans zag de literatuur als het ultieme wapen om zijn persoonlijke waarheid in de geest van zijn onwillige medemensen te branden Literatuur is voor hem een bestaansvoorwaarde en bittere noodzaak Deze werkelijkheidsconceptie komt tot uitdrukking in zijn thematiek vruchteloos proberen de personages van Hermans de buitenwereld te overtuigen van hun gelijk in een universum dat geen waarheid kent Tot slot plaatst Raat het werk van Hermans in een literair historisch kader Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1981 National Union Catalog, 1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases The Palgrave Handbook of Intersectionality in Public Policy Olena Hankivsky, Julia S. Jordan-Zachery, 2019-02-01 Grounded in black feminist scholarship and activism and formally coined in 1989 by black legal scholar Kimberl Williams Crenshaw intersectionality has garnered significant attention in the field of public policy and other disciplines fields of study The potential of intersectionality however has not been fully realized in policy largely due to the challenges of operationalization Recently some scholars and activists began to advance conceptual clarity and guidance for intersectionality policy applications yet a pressing need remains for knowledge development and exchange in relation to empirical work that demonstrates how intersectionality improves public policy This handbook fills this void by highlighting the key challenges possibilities and critiques of intersectionality informed approaches in public policy It brings together international scholars across a variety of policy sectors and disciplines to consider the state of intersectionality in policy research and analysis Importantly it offers a global perspective on the added value and how to of intersectionality informed policy approaches that aim to advance equity and social justice Religion in the Making Arie L. Molendijk, Peter Pels, 2018-11-13 This volume explores the ways in which religion became the object of scientific research in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Most obvious is the development of an increasingly autonomous science of religion with founding fathers like Max Müller and C P Tiele However within anthropology Tylor Frazer sociology Durkheim Max Weber and psychology William James religion also came to be seen as a separate entity to be studied comparatively To capture this wide field this book focuses on the emergence of the discourse on religion in a broad academic context among different disciplines The emphasis is on general socio historical developments rather than on individual biographies Part I deals with the institutionalization of science of religion in France Britain and the Netherlands Part II focuses on boundary disputes between the emerging sciences of religion Part III examines new conceptualizations of religion underlying the new endeavour ritual magic survival The Routledge Handbook of Social Care Work Around the World Karen Christensen, Doria

Pilling,2017-12-22 The Routledge Handbook of Social Care Work Around the World provides both a comprehensive and authoritative state of the art review of the current research in this subject It is the first handbook to cover social care work research from around the world including both low and middle income countries as well as high income countries Each of the 22 chapters are written by experts on long term care services particularly for older people and cover key issues and debates based on research evidence on social care work in a specific country They look at perspectives of social care work from the macro level the structural conditions for long term care including demographic challenges and the long term care policy the meso level the level of provider organizations and intermediaries and the micro level views of care workers care users and unpaid informal carers Furthermore they discuss a number of topics central to discussions of care work including marketization personalization policies policy implementation under austerity the provision of social care work whether through public services or private arrangements or mixed types funding the feminization of social care and the new role that technology and robots can play in care work By drawing together leading scholars from around the world this book provides an up to the minute snapshot of current scholarship as well as signposting several fruitful avenues for future research This book is both an invaluable resource for scholars and an indispensable teaching tool for use in the classroom and will be of interest to students academics social workers social policy makers and human service professionals
