Th Bouwman,Bart Besamusca,2009 An entertaining reworking of the most popular branch of the Old French tale of Reynard the Fox the mid thirteenth century Dutch epic Van den vos Reynaerde is one of the earliest long literary works in the Dutch vernacular Sly Reynaert and a cast of other comical woodland characters find themselves again and again caught up in escapades that often provide a satirical commentary on human society This charmingly volume is the first bilingual edition of the tale featuring facing pages with an English translation by Thea Summerfield making the undisputed masterpiece of medieval Dutch literature accessible to a wide international audience Accompanying the critical text and parallel translation are an introduction interpretative notes an index of names a complete glossary and a short introduction to Middle Dutch De "parochiekercke van Hulst, soo binnen als buijten", van 1199 tot 2010 Marc Buise,Jan Kort (de),2024 Geschiedenis van Hulst en het Hulsterambacht waarbij de parochiekerk met haar binnen en buitenparochie centraal stond Aspects of the Medieval Animal Epic Edward Rombauts,Andries Welkenhuysen,1975 The Low Countries History Yearbook 1978 I. the soundscape of cities in Belgium and the Netherlands Since the First World War carillon music has become popular in the United States where it adds a spiritual dimension to public parks and university campuses Singing Bronze opens up the fascinating world of the carillon to the reader It tells the great stories of European and American carillon history the quest for the perfect musical bell the fate of carillons in times of revolt and war the role of patrons such as John D Rockefeller Jr and Herbert Hoover in the development of American carillon culture and the battle between singing bronze and carillon electronics Richly illustrated with original photographs and etchings Singing Bronzetells how people developed played and enjoyed bell music With this book a fascinating history that is yet little known is made available for a wide public Honor, Vengeance, and Social Trouble Peter Arnade, Walter Prevenier, 2015-06-04 Among the more intriguing documentary sources from late medieval Europe are pardon letters petitions sent by those condemned for serious crimes to monarchs and princes in France and the Low Countries in the hopes of receiving a full pardon The fifteenth century Burgundian Low Countries and duchy of Burgundy produced a large cache of these petitions from both major cities Bruges Ghent Antwerp and Dijon and rural communities In Honor Vengeance and Social Trouble Peter Arnade and Walter Prevenier present the first study in English of these letters to explore and interrogate the boundaries between these sources internal discursive properties and the social world beyond the written text Honor Vengeance and Social Trouble takes the reader out onto the streets and into the taverns homes and workplaces of the Burgundian territories charting the most pressing social concerns of the day everything from family disputes and vendettas to marital infidelity and property conflicts and more generally the problems of public violence abduction and rape and the role of honor and revenge in adjudicating disputes Arnade and Prevenier examine why the right to pardon was often enacted by the Burgundian dukes and how it came to compete with more traditional legal means of resolving disputes In addition they consider the pardon letter as a historical source highlighting the limitations and pitfalls of relying on documents that are by their very nature narratives shaped by the petitioner to seek a favored outcome The book also includes a detailed case study of a female actress turned prostitute An example of microhistory at its best Honor Vengeance and Social Trouble will challenge scholars while being accessible to students in courses on medieval and early modern Europe or on historiography Bibliografie van de stedengeschiedenis van Nederland G. van Herwijnen, 2023-08-28 Texts and chronologies illustrating the constitutional and administrative history of European towns through the middle of the thirteenth century Nederlands archievenblad, 1929 Humanistica Lovaniensia, 1985
