Embodied Collective Memory The Making And Unmaking Of Human Nature:

Embodied Collective Memory Rafael F. Narváez, 2013 The human body is not a given fact it is not as Descartes believed a machine made up of flesh and bones The body is acquired achieved and learned It is thus full of mimetic and mnemonic implications The body remembers and it does so in collectively relevant ways Gestures corporeal and phonetic rhythms affective idioms and emotional styles perceptual sensorial motoric and affective schemata are all largely learned in shared social contexts These aspects of the embodied experience are often consigned to habit to bodily automatisms and to corporeal memories that reflect aspects of culture But if the body reflects certain aspects of culture that press to become naturalized and organically attached to social actors it also resists these kinds of cultural pressures These adaptive and resistive dynamics as this book shows are not without consequences for individuals and groups These processes can result in both advantages and disadvantages for social actors They can take us toward certain futures while foreclosing others It is therefore necessary to understand how why and to what extent corporeal memories are constructed but also resisted modified or created anew

Trickbox of Memory Felicitas Macgilchrist, Rosalie Metro, 2020 Reach into this trickbox of memory and rummage around you may find a tiny spaceship or perhaps a signpost a parade a raised fist an entire museum The essays in Trickbox of Memory Essays on Power and Disorderly Pasts draw on literary criticism post qualitative inquiry new materialism and political activism to dismember and reanimate the field of memory studies In the trickbox concepts rub up against each other pieces chip off things leak glitter gets everywhere Things are damaged their edges are ragged Some show the potential for repair in the future The chapters in this volume respond to the observation that in today's moment of political danger expected pasts can easily be instrumentalized in the service of fascism Trickbox of Memory interrupts the expected to throw history into disarray by focusing on the subtlety of how power relations are enacted and contested in reference to the past assembling a transnational constellation of scholars and practitioners who offer new tricks for working critically with disorderly pasts

Time, Space and the Human Body: An Interdisciplinary Look Rafael F. Narváez, Leslie R. Malland, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Concerns about the human body and soul and their relationship to the world around us are as old as Western Culture itself Beyond philosophy and theology these sorts of preoccupations have also marked the arts literature and poetry and to be sure they have influenced Western culture and have marked westerners imaginations and our everyday understanding of human nature This book considers various ways in which the body is and has been addressed and depicted over time and it is also a reflection on the ways in which the very spaces that we design and inhabit likewise reflect perceived ideas and misconceptions about the human body
