Mixed Methods in Criminology Vicky Heap, Jaime Waters, 2019-01-10 Mixed Methods in Criminology is the first book to bring together the discipline of criminology with the mixed methods research strategy which has become increasingly prominent within criminological teaching and research The book is structured so that it charts the course of a criminological mixed methods study Starting with an introduction to mixed methods and its implications for criminology and criminological research the book then works systematically through the planning stages of a research project Developing research questions aims and objectives is discussed alongside literature searching skills and the project planning process before the principles and practice of ethical research are summarised Next come chapters on philosophy mixed methods design combining the data research design and sampling data collection methods and data analysis delivering a comprehensive overview of how to undertake a mixed methods research project in practice This is followed by a chapter on troubleshooting which provides useful advice from experienced mixed methods researchers before a detailed account of how to write up mixed methods research is presented The book concludes with a range of real life mixed methods case studies to demonstrate how the techniques outlined in this book have been employed in reality and to inspire new criminological mixed methods projects Providing straightforward easy to follow guidance Mixed Methods in Criminology is the essential student companion for any criminological mixed methods research project Drawing on the authors years of experience teaching research methods the book is written in a supportive and encouraging tone that will serve as a reference and guide for those embarking on their adventures in the field

The Holy Spirit in African Christianity Chigor Chike,2015-04-01 This book is a study of what African Christians living in Britain believe about the Holy Spirit

Preach the Word Myles MacBean,2019-11-11 How should we help equip the church leaders of Africa today There remains a well documented lack of theologically sound Bible centric preaching in Sub Saharan Africa The majority of sermons are preached by untrained or undertrained church leaders Following a practical theology praxis this book develops a conceptual framework for the evaluation of existing alternative approaches to grassroots preacher training It also proposes broad principles for effective preacher training and offers a practical solution The 20th century had seen the Christian church in Africa grow 36 fold to 360 million This amazing growth is arguably the largest religious change in human history in such a short period It has shifted the focus of Christianity from North to South This rapid growth is debatably considered by some missiologists and theologians to have resulted in an African church a mile wide and an inch deep That is a church of great size but lacking in spiritual depth The rapid growth has led to insufficient numbers of trained leaders being available to oversee their congregations Most leaders are unpaid Untrained or undertrained leaders have an inadequate knowledge of scripture and lack understanding of its interpretation They also lack the skills they need to communicate its truths Even so they preach up to 90% of the sermons in rural Africa Despite a tremendous hunger for training among many of those preachers traditional college based theological education cannot keep up with the demand for trained pastors and preachers in an affordable or culturally appropriate manner
