All About You (Love & Hate Series #1) (New Adult, romance, college, sports, contemporary) Joanna Mazurkiewicz, 2020-08-15 New Adult Contemporary Romance full length novel 83 000 words I start hating Oliver just after his older brother Christian s death I drag him down a road of humiliation and pain to try to cope with what his brother did to me A few months after Christian s passing Oliver leaves town and for the next two years he is absent from my life The demons claw their way back in and I must learn to live with the secret that has destroyed me Now I m starting a new life away from Gargle and away from my past but everything crashes when I see Oliver the first day at university It s clear that many things have changed since we ve been apart Now he is captain of the rugby team and the most popular bloke on campus Then he makes a bet and gives me an ultimatum I leave Braxton forever and start somewhere else or I stay and play his game because he s never forgotten that it was me who ruined his life two years ago Media and Religion Stewart M. Hoover,Nabil Echchaibi,2021-07-05 This volume considers the mediation of religion in the context of global relations of power culture and communication It takes a nuanced historical view of emergent religions and their mediation in various forms The wide range of chapters provides valuable insight into particular contexts while also offering connections to other cases and contexts Together they form a snapshot of religious evolution in the media age The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld,2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship Queer Cinema in the World Karl Schoonover,Rosalind Galt,2016-11-17 Proposing a radical vision of cinema s queer globalism Karl Schoonover and Rosalind

Galt explore how queer filmmaking intersects with international sexual cultures geopolitics and aesthetics to disrupt dominant modes of world making Whether in its exploration of queer cinematic temporality the paradox of the queer popular or the deviant ecologies of the queer pastoral Schoonover and Galt reimagine the scope of queer film studies The authors move beyond the gay art cinema canon to consider a broad range of films from Chinese lesbian drama and Swedish genderqueer documentary to Bangladeshi melodrama and Bolivian activist video Schoonover and Galt make a case for the centrality of queerness in cinema and trace how queer cinema circulates around the globe institutionally via film festivals online consumption and human rights campaigns but also affectively in the production of a queer sensorium In this account cinema creates a uniquely potent mode of queer worldliness one that disrupts normative ways of being in the world and forges revised modes of belonging
