Mathematics Education in a Neocolonial Country: The Case of Papua New Guinea Patricia Paraide, Kay Owens, Charly Muke, Philip Clarkson, Christopher Owens, 2023-01-10 Most education research is undertaken in western developed countries While some research from developing countries does make it into research journals from time to time but these articles only emphasize the rarity of research in developing countries The proposed book is unique in that it will cover education in Papua New Guinea over the millennia Papua New Guinea s multicultural society with relatively recent contact with Europe and the Middle East provides a cameo of the development of education in a country with both a colonial history and a coup less transition to independence Discussion will focus on specific areas of mathematics education that have been impacted by policies research circumstances and other influences with particular emphasis on pressures on education in the last one and half centuries This volume will be one of the few records of this kind in the education research literature as an in depth record and critique of how school mathematics has been grown in Papua New Guinea from the late 1800s and should be a useful addition to graduate programs mathematics education courses history of mathematics as well as the interdisciplinary fields of cross cultural studies scholarship focusing on globalization and post decolonialism linguistics educational administration and policy technology education teacher education and gender studies The Western Christian Advocate ,1908 Beacon ,1999 APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service , Michigan Christian Advocate ,1904 Christian Science Sentinel ,1900 Spheres of Governance Harvey Lazar, Christian Leuprecht, 2007 Local governments are becoming increasingly important around the world and functions are being shifted across levels of government This timely comparative analysis breaks new ground in the study of multilevel governance intergovernmental relations and municipal government Spheres of Governance systematically compares the challenges faced by municipalities in Australia France Germany Mexico South Africa Spain Switzerland and the United States with emphasis on the relationship between the municipal and federal levels Each chapter analyzes a municipality in relation to its responsibilities functions and organization constitutional and fiscal position relations with the central government provincial and state governments mediation of these relationships and public policy development especially with regard to emergency planning and immigration and settlement The chapters also highlight the tensions and pressures for change in the systems Taking God to School Marion Maddox,2014-02-01 Fewer Australians now practise a religion or believe in God than ever Yet our governments increasingly push conservative Christianity on our children Nearly forty per cent of secondary students attend a private school which are overwhelmingly Christian Canberra funds them heavily and sends evangelical Christian chaplains into both public and private schools Some states subsidise Christian volunteers to deliver religious instruction and some make Christian ministry a matriculation subject Some Christian schools promote Creationism and some advertise that their first priority is training soldiers to do battle for the Lord in a world which rejects His laws and dominion rather than good citizens of Australia Marion Maddox demonstrates that our governments are systematically demolishing the once proud free compulsory and secular education system in favour of taxpayer funded dogma and division The implications are unsettling for our society and for our democracy If you believe education is about teaching children how to think not what to think then this chilling book is a must read Jane Caro social commentator and co author of What Makes a Good School This deeply disturbing book tells how Australia s noble dream of public education in the 19th century has been undermined by a combination of selfish political vote buying judicial abdication and public indifference The Hon Michael Kirby AC CMG The Churchman ,1896 Abstracts of the Annual Meeting American Anthropological Association,2008 The Religious Digest ,1919
